MEET SARVH

SARVH is India's first AI-based social-commerce platform for all the small businesses, offline stores, designers, sellers, and customers and is dedicated to building a community that can BUY-SELL CONNECT.

SARVH for sellers will give you the access to have genuine and potential customers/fashion enthusiasts from all over India who are looking for something that they can't find on a normal ecommerce site.

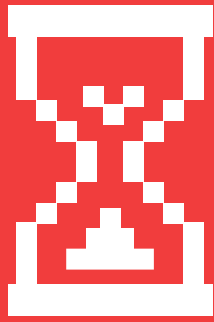

*NOTE

Connecting with SARVH as a seller doesn't restrict you to sell only here you are free to expand your business as per your wish.

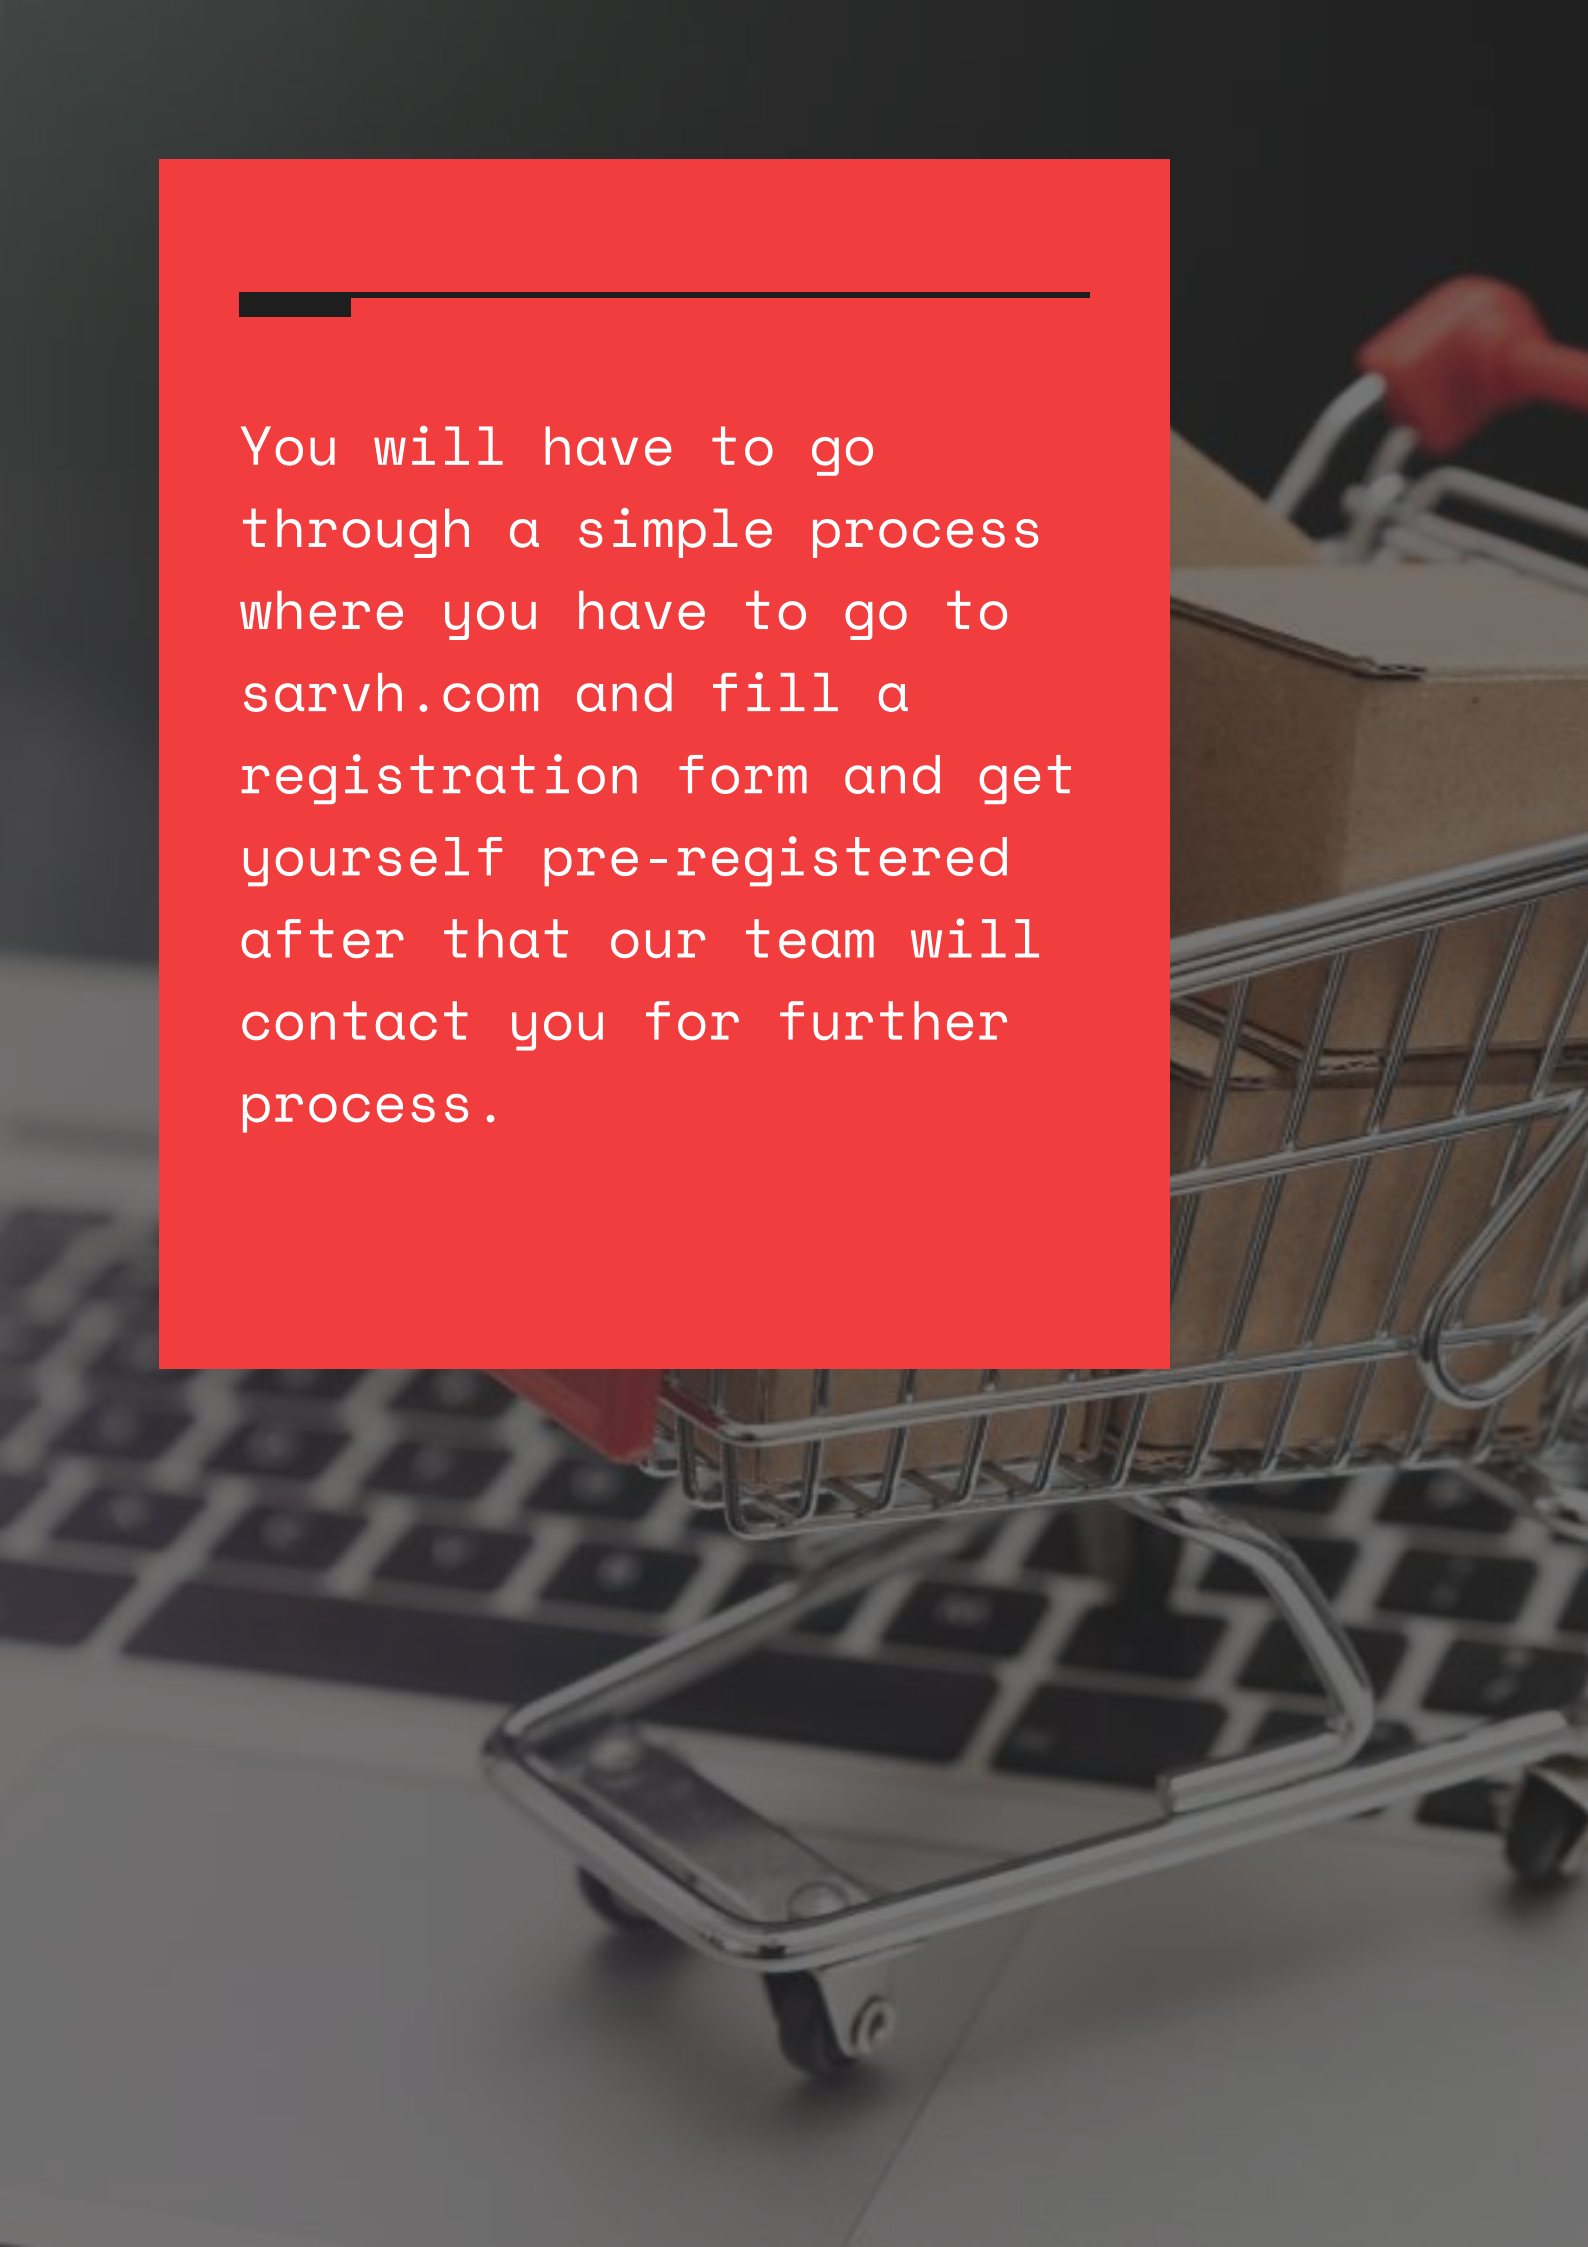

HOW WILL SARVH WORK FOR YOU ?

SARVH will provide you with a well-built platform which will be a site initially and then an app, where you will get a SARVH's seller account through which you can update your products their pictures, and description, that is all that you have to do rest all will be taken care by team SARVH including customer service, delivery, and other midway maintenance.

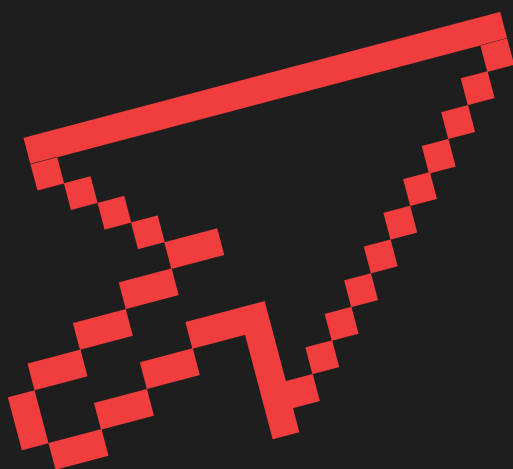

How can you
be a seller on SARVH ?

A shopping cart with cardboard boxes is positioned over a laptop keyboard. The cart is silver and has a red handle. The background is a dark, blurred image of a laptop keyboard.

You will have to go through a simple process where you have to go to sarvh.com and fill a registration form and get yourself pre-registered after that our team will contact you for further process.

THE PRIVILEGE OF BEING A SARVH SELLER

The major plus point you get to be a seller at SARVH is that you get a well built dynamic website of your own store which you can promote or keep in your social media's bio where all your products will be displayed and your customers will have access to buy from you and connect with you.

AND YOU KNOW WHAT, PRE-REGISTRATION IS ABSOLUTELY FREEE!!!

WHY GOING ONLINE IS SO IMPORTANT

As we update ourselves with time, things are started getting digitalized, and maximum people want their privileges from the comfort of their home, so it will maximize your customer reach to the next level.

Building a website requires a lot of economic and technical resources also a thorough knowledge, you don't have to worry about either of the things SARVH will build and maintain your acquisition. So you can save up all your expenditure you have to do build and maintain it properly.

Now, If you already have a website build, very good for you but let just take an example, let there are a certain amount of sellers who have their website live online but when a customer search for a certain product there is no guarantee that the web will show it up but if you have your website right here in SARVH whenever a customer will search a certain product and if you sell it then it will be out there in front of them which will help you be more visible. A customer will not go to a website or install an application all the time to buy stuff.

Building a website requires a lot of economic and technical resources also a thorough knowledge. Also if you are selling your products on social media platforms you are probably not hitting your potential targeted audience because it's a social entertainment platform and people there are in search of good content but if you have a proper account here at SARVH you can direct your customers from there but also the people who visit SARVH with a clear mindset to shop can see you, buy from you and connect with you., you don't have to worry about either of the things SARVH will build and maintain your acquisition. So you can save up all your expenditure you have to do build and maintain it properly.

WHY

ONLY

SARVH

There are many other e-commerce platforms out there but why you should consider SARVH, our motive is to promote you as a brand for tomorrow, we will provide you with the recognition you deserve for which you have put in your hard work.

On other e-commerce sites, customers don't get to know their sellers but here at SARVH they can know you and connect to you which will give them a feeling of affinity by which they will tend to shop more from you.

We, as the growing youth know how sustainable fashion is better than fast fashion for us and the world, our vision at SARVH is to keep your sustainable fashion products upfront in the revolutionary world and promote them for the betterment of all. People till now have no idea of the difference between them, many fast fashion companies are running their businesses here. People will get the difference when they will find better and sustainable alternatives which will be you guys, for that you have to be more visible and accessible to the world for which SARVH will help you be online.

INTRODUCING
SARVH 'S
EXCLUSIVE FEATURE

VIRTUAL TRY-ON

As we described ourselves earlier as an AI-based social commerce platform, we present to you our very new and advanced feature of virtual try-on, an AI-based system.

Virtual try-on technology enables customers to try on products using our platform, and they have total freedom regarding decision making, trying and choosing products at their own pace, without feeling the pressure to make a purchase. With the help of VTON, users may contextually visualize the item in which they are interested, interacting and confirming the style, the size and the fit before making a purchase. possibility to interact with products on the Internet, try, test and share them on social media and communities is a basic feature that consumers need.

This technology will increase connectivity with consumers and gain a competitive advantage in the market.

Our Virtual try-on technology helps to reduce returns, which means fewer costs and more fluid supply chains.

All these being said, virtual try-on technology is no longer a thing of the future, but a necessary tool that we bring to you, ensuring a convenient shopping experience, that should be on every marketer's to-do list.

So what are you waiting for preregistration is live and is completely free of cost, you just have to go to our site and fill the pre-registration form which will take hardly 2 minutes.
